Uppababy vista v2 2020 sale

Just so you know, What to Expect may earn commissions from the shopping links included on this page. All sales and prices are accurate at the time of publishing. What is it? Uppababy Vista V2 Stroller with Bassinet Why I love it: It's a high-quality stroller with all the accessories you need and great customer service — so you can use it for years. How much is it? $800 (down from its normal price of $1,000) Where to buy it: Nordstrom If you're in the market for a popular stroller, I highly recommend that you add the Uppababy Vista V2 to your cart ASAP. I've had this stroller for nearly three years and can say that it's a great product — and it rarely is available on sale, let alone at such a great price. At $800, it's 20 percent off at Nordstrom. I started paying more attention to strollers before my first son was born in 2018, and I quickly saw a common theme: Almost everyone in my neighborhood had an Uppababy stroller, and many parents had the Uppababy Vista (now available as the updated Uppababy Vista V2). There were several features about the Vista that I found appealing: Great suspension that makes for a smoother ride for baby The ability to turn the stroller into a double if you have a second child down the road A large storage basket underneath that can hold up to 30 pounds of baby gear An included bassinet, rain shield and bug shield Great compatible accessories, like a snack tray and a kickboard for larger children 20% off Uppababy Vista V2 $1,000 $800 See More But I still wondered if it was worth $1,000. Now that my son is 3 and I've been using the Uppababy Vista since he was born, I can say confidently that yes, it is worth that price tag. The stroller has been great for long walks in any weather and carrying all of the necessary gear needed along the way. I also bought a rumble seat and turned it into a two-seater after my now-15-month-old son was born. We love that we didn't have to buy a brand new stroller when I was expecting again, and both kids enjoy riding in it together. I should also mention that part of what you get for the price tag is unparalleled customer service. I have had a couple of minor issues with the Uppababy Vista since we got it, and the customer service team was always incredibly helpful, shipping us new parts quickly to fix the situation — and always for free if it was an issue with the stroller. And another tip: Make sure to register your stroller within the first three months of purchase to take advantage of the extended three-year warranty (otherwise, your stroller will only be under warranty for two years). I'm not the only mom who loves the Uppababy Vista V2. The stroller is also a WTE parent favorite, and it earned a 2021 WTE Mom Must-Have Award. I registered for the Uppababy Vista and bought it when I was eligible for a completion discount to get it 15 percent off. But you can get it at an even better deal right now, as Nordstrom has the Uppababy Vista V2 available for $800 — a full 20 percent off of its normal price. The stroller hasn't been available at a price this good since Buy Buy Baby's Black Friday sale last month, so we recommend you jump on this opportunity at your earliest convenience. Today, the retailer's highly-anticipated Anniversary Sale officially kicks off for all Icon-level shoppers — and there are discounts new and expecting parents will want to take advantage of. If you have Icon Early Access, there's one item might want to consider adding to your cart ASAP: the Uppababy Vista V2 Stella Stroller with Bassinet. This uber popular stroller is considered a must-have by many What to Expect parents and editors alike, and it rarely goes on sale. One of our favorite convertible strollers, the Uppababy Vista V2 is now $726.90, or a whopping $243 discount from its full retail price. The last time we saw this kind of deal was during Black Friday back in November. Parents love this stroller for its versatility, and it's especially helpful for bigger families. With a conversion kit (sold separately), you can accommodate as many as three kids at a time. It has the capacity to fit two seats (infant and infant, infant and toddler or toddler and toddler) and a standing bench. The Uppababy Vista V2 Stella checks all the boxes you want in a stroller: shock-absorbing suspension (a.k.a. smoother rides), both rain and bug shields and a UPF 50+ canopy. The bassinet attachment is suitable for babies up to 20 pounds, and the toddler seat is made for babies ranging from 3 months until they're 50 pounds. This adaptable, reliable stroller is rarely on sale, so to take advantage of this offer while it lasts. If you're not a Nordstrom Icon card member, the good news is that you can start shopping the retailer's deals when the sale is open to the public on Wednesday, August 19. Improved all-wheel suspension - Enjoy a smoother ride pushing one child (or three!) over any ground surface due to new, softer, spring-action tires and all-wheel suspension.
